

Lesson One

(Page 6- Week 2 - Tones and Sounds) Revision of last week's tones. New Sound Ǻ. The class also learnt the CH, sound. In English when CH is pronounced some air goes through in Vietnamese, no air goes through.

Lesson Two

How to use a Universal Language Generator . If you know just twenty words in each category you will know 64 million sentences. This ULG has potentially 125 sentences. The class practiced the words then got up in pairs to say a sentence to each other.

Lesson Three

(Page 5- Week 2 - Tones and Sounds) Learning the sounds ǺC, ǺT, ǺCH only d u s c and d u n g apply. The class also learnt the NH, KH and NG sounds.

Lesson Four

Revision of numbers then on to days of the week and months of the year. Balloon Educational Exercise. Chúa Nh t (Lord's day) and Ch Nh t are both correct. Apparently Nh t is derived from the Cantonese word for day.

Lesson Five

(Page 7- Week 2 - Tones and Sounds) The class learnt Ǻ. After some practice of this letter

there was some practice of the differences between A, Ǻ and Â (and an explanation of some occasions where there is little or no difference).

Lesson Six

Learning the first 5 books of the bible . Balloon Education Exercise. Then the first CD was distributed (much to the relief of the students). Audio recordings are available online here: <https://sites.google.com/a/ispeakviet.com/audio/recordings>

Lesson Seven

Field ministry presentation , slight change from last week – Cám ỉn was added.

Homework

As per homework sheet .
